Lundi Matin Monday Morning Montag Morgen

18 MAY 2009

Good morning, everyone! It is indeed a great pleasure to welcome you to the John E. Dolibois European Campus, to Luxembourg and to Europe. All of us at MUDEC, the faculty and staff, are happy that you are here and wish you a most rewarding, meaningful and enjoyable stay. The next six weeks are going to be some of the most exciting, fast paced and challenging ones in your life. While all of us at MUDEC are committed to helping and guiding you as you go through this European experience, it is really your responsibility to get the most out of it. So, take advantage of the marvelous opportunity you have to study and to live in Europe. Plan all of your activities well and ascertain that you are allocating your time, your energy and your resources wisely, effective and efficiently. Your commitment to academics is essential and the most important of all.

The orientation activities you had participated in this past weekend were designed to provide you with useful information, with opportunities to become acquainted with MUDEC and Luxembourg and to help you with the process of "bonding"; essential for you to feel "at home" at MUDEC. Your positive attitude, your punctuality and your team spirit were and are much appreciated. We have spent many days and hours planning the orientation program and the various excursions for you and are gratified to see how much all of you enjoyed them.

A special "thank you" goes to the faculty and staff members who participated in the different orientation activities. They gave up even part of their weekend to make this possible. It was a wonderful and most enjoyable "MUDEC family" experience for all of us.

The success of MUDEC at large and of your summer program, specifically, rests on three solid pillars, which in their entirety represent the foundation of your European experience. They are in sequence of priorities: 1) Your and our commitment to an excellent, timely and relevant academic program, 2) the opportunity to experience European family and social life and 3) Center sponsored and individual travels.

For you to benefit from your European experience and to get the most out of it, it is of utmost importance that you manage your resources wisely and that you allocate your time and your energy according to the priorities established by the MUDEC program.

To assure the continued excellent academic reputation and success of our program, it is essential that you accept and abide by the attendance, conduct, and social rules we have established and discussed in our orientation lectures.

I feel that we are off to a very good summer program and would like to thank you for your attentiveness, your cooperation and for your positive attitude. With all of us working together we will have a great summer term.

Again, I extend to you my warmest welcome to MUDEC, to Luxembourg and to Europe. I am delighted that you are here and wish you most wonderful, enlightening and enriching summer term and European experience.

Most sincerely,

Ekkehard Stiller
Dean
